

IMPROVED HARBOR FOR NEW YORK IS URGED BY GOV. DIX

Executive, Speaking Before Chamber of Commerce, Favors New Pier System.

RAPS RAILROAD RATES.

Wants State Canals Enlarged and Terminals for 1,000-Ton Barges.

A comprehensive dock and pier system and general harbor improvement was urged today by Gov. John A. Dix in an address before the Chamber of Commerce. The Governor named the three things which he believed to be of most vital importance to the prosperity and welfare of the city. He said:

"To my mind, three things are vital to the continued prosperity of the city of New York, and upon the prosperity of the city of New York depends, to a large degree, the prosperity of the entire State.

"First—The proper development of the terminal facilities of the Port of New York so as to make it adequate in every detail to the requirements of modern commerce, the units of which are constantly expanding, and so reasonable in its charges as to reduce to the minimum the cost of distributing to consumers the products of soil and industry.

"Second—The removal of differential railroad rates discriminating against this city in favor of rival ports on the Atlantic seacoast, and

"Third—The completion at the earliest moment consistent with sound reconstruction of the work of enlarging the State canals and of providing ample terminals for the 1,000-ton barges which are to navigate those waterways.

"We need to have here the longest and best piers and the amplest accommodations of the latest approved apparatus for domestic and foreign commerce as carried on both by steamships and railroads.

"The Panama Canal is being pushed to speedy completion. The new barge canal in our own State will be ready by 1915. The port of New York should also be made ready with adequate terminals for these great works. Other ports are beginning to spend millions, if necessary, to increase their facilities to the expanding requirements of an international commerce which is year after year calling for examples of bigger dimensions, and which constantly demands more scientific methods for the handling of freight. In the last twenty years the number of vessels in the world's merchant marine has decreased nearly 7 per cent., while the tonnage of vessels has increased nearly 50 per cent.

This remarkable expansion of the units of ocean transportation, corresponding to a similar growth in the units of land transportation, amounts almost to a revolution in commerce and requires a comprehensive adaptation of port facilities to the new conditions thus created."

Takes Trip Around Harbor.
After the luncheon Gov. Dix escorted by the members of the New York and New Jersey Harbor Commissioners took a trip around the harbor on board the revenue cutter Hudson. R. A. C. Smith is chairman of the joint commission.
The other commissioners for New York are Dock Commissioner Calvin Tompkins and State Engineer John A. Behnd.
The New Jersey commissioners are W.
B. Dixon, J. Spencer Smith and Ernest J. Hoppenheimer.

Before Gov. Dix's speech the chamber held its annual election. A. Barton Hepburn was re-elected President. Other officers elected were Vice-Presidents John Claflin, A. Foster Higgins and John Talcott; Treasurer, M. H. Porter; Secretary, S. S. Pratt; Chairman of Committees: Executive, James G. Cannon; Finance and Currency, Frank A.
Vanderlip; Foreign Commerce, Welding Rice; Internal Trade, Samuel R. Fairchild; Harbor and Shipping, E. H. Out-bridge; Insurance, A. A. Raven; Municipal Taxation, D. P. Kearney.
John D. Rockefeller Jr. and William B.
Peck were elected members of the commission on Foreign Commerce and the Revenue laws, and William Jay Schierelin and Cornelius W. Bliss Jr. were appointed members of the committee on Internal Trade. Isaac N. Seligman and Gates W. McGarran were elected to the committee on Municipal Taxation.
Henry M. Randall was named for Commissioner for licensing sailors' hotels and boarding houses.

MURTAGH HOTEL BURNED.
Paterson Landmark, Unoccupied, Is Completely Destroyed by Fire.

One of the most ancient landmarks of Paterson, N. J., the old Murtagh Hotel, at the top of the Clay street hill and near the Morris Canal, was destroyed by fire early today. The ramshackle, weather-lattered building had not been occupied for a year and no one was in it when the fire was discovered. A spark from a passing locomotive probably set the place afire. There was a strong wind and the flames were powerless to control the flames.
The Murtagh Hotel was built about seventy years ago and until recently when it was sold for taxes, it was in the possession of the Murtagh family.
It was once famous as a headquarters for sporting men and numerous notable prize fights were held there. There was also a time when it was popular with New Yorkers for its excellent dinners.

SUGAR TRUST INQUIRY WILL BE SWEEPING

WASHINGTON, May 4.—A broad investigation of the entire sugar refining industry in this country will be the result of the resolution introduced by Representative Hardwick, Democrat, of Georgia, providing for a probe of the Sugar Trust. The House Rules Committee today appointed Representatives Hardwick, Fox and Lenroot a sub-committee to redraft the resolution broadening its scope to include all branches of the sugar industry.
The committee will then report the resolution favorably to the House.

proposed in a bill introduced today by Assemblyman Cuvillier of New York.

Famous Harinfelt Mattress

Specially Priced for Friday

O'Neill Main Store—Fourth Floor (Formerly Adams Building).

With French roll edge at usual price of plain style.
The HARINFELT MATTRESS is unique in construction.
Alternate layers of fine quality of curled hair and pure cotton felt add elasticity of the one material to the smooth quality of the other, with combined comfort of both. It is SELF-VENTILATING; the pressure of the sleeper's body causes air to circulate in and through the layers of hair, the felt layers acting as bellows (see the arrows in cut); thus the inside is kept sweet and sanitary. Deep, plump and full of possibilities for real rest.

Carefully made in clean workrooms by the best hand labor. Covered in a beautiful pattern of art ticking. The excellence of the HARINFELT MATTRESS is well known, and when you can buy it with the fine French edge at the price of a plain mattress you gain at least $2 in value. We are the selling agents for this wonderful mattress, and it will be demonstrated
